

Galapagos Islands Cruise & Quito, Ecuador!

Post-Cruise Option: Machu Picchu Land Tour!

Expedition

X Celebrity Cruises

December 2010

The Expedition gives you:

This is not your typical Cruise-Tour...no crowds, no formal attire, and no nickel-dime charges. Your only mission is to relax, enjoy the sights, and learn from seven certified "Naturalists" who will be your guides on daily Zodiac-style shore excursions in groups of 14. The service is first class...the entire crew loves their work and it shows! The package is All-Inclusive: Hotel Nights in Quito, All Meals, Wine & Spirits, Gratuities, Round Trip Air Quito to Galapagos, Transfers, & Shore Excursions. The memories will enrich you for a lifetime.

Come with us and embrace this unique opportunity to observe nature up-close, in the world's largest classroom. Lon and I did this same itinerary (less Machu Picchu) last year, and we can't wait to do it again! Daily doses of Diving Marine Iguanas, Dive Bombing Blue Footed Boobies, Sea Lions, Albatross, Penguins, Sally Light-Foot Crabs, Green Sea Turtles, 200 year-old Tortoises, Flightless Cormorants, Colorful Reef Fish, Sharks, and so much more! Everything is so accessible. You actually have to be careful where you walk, so you don't harm the wildlife. Due to isolation, they have not yet learned to fear or to flee from humans. Photo opportunities abound. No wonder Darwin stayed there so long, developing his Theory of Evolution.

- A modern, intimately sized 300 foot yacht, with a capacity of just 90 guests and 60 crew members.
- Spacious, well-appointed staterooms with Private Bath (shower). TV, Phone, Safe, Hair Dryer, Binoculars, Robes, Thermostat, Room Service.
- Fitness Center, Hot Tub, Bar, Zodiac Landing at the Stern, Storage for complimentary Wet Suit and Snorkel Gear.
- Enrichment Lectures. Daily opportunity to select the next day's excursions.
- Fine dining, with your drinks included.

After the cruise, we will add a 6-night Land Tour, exploring archeological sites of the ancient Incas in Lima, Cuzco, and Machu Picchu. This optional extension will mesh seamlessly with the Galapagos Cruise. I will know more later, as the details solidify. For now, my best estimate is $3,000pp for this rare opportunity.

As always, we will host luncheons to go over details and to distribute your travel booklets (with day-by-day itineraries) and complimentary logo items.
