

14-Day Cruise South America & Chilean Fjords

Group Cruise Offer! Norwegian Crown

The Norwegian Crown is a mid-sized ship which began sailing in 1988 as the Crown Odyssey, the centerpiece of Royal Cruise Lines' luxury fleet. Purchased by NCL, she now sails with Scandinavian Officers, and a Filipino service staff with an amazing memory for passenger names and preferences. Her 527 staterooms are extra large, most with picture windows and marble bathrooms. The penthouse suites all have balconies, and you will love the modern fitness clubs, pools and Jacuzzis.

This trip is suited for anyone, but especially those who have done the more "popular" itineraries. It's in that "once in a lifetime" category. We are particularly impressed with pricing as compared with other lines doing SA. Staterooms are much larger than normal too. Fly to Buenos Aires. Return from Valparaiso. For something this exotic, we need to plan well in advance. We expect to escort this group, so if you have sailed with us before, you know that means extra perks...group pricing, embroidered souvenir shirts & hats, hosted cocktail parties, and our own land tours arranged whenever possible. If interested, let us know ASAP. 2007 is just around the corner!
